

Name _____ Period _____

Propaganda: The Manipulation of Symbols

Slide One: What is Propaganda?

- A way of _____ people using images and words to achieve a desired affect or outcome
- Propaganda clouds _____ and gets in the way of clear and honest thinking
- During wartime, propaganda is designed to provide a focus for our _____ and _____, to _____ the enemy so they may be killed without remorse

Slide Two: Types of Propaganda

- The Enemy As _____
- The Enemy As _____
- The Enemy As _____, Committer of Atrocities
- The Enemy As _____
- The Enemy As _____, Reptile, or Insect
- The Enemy As _____
- The Enemy As _____

Slide Three: The Enemy as Enemy of God

- The enemy is not merely flesh and blood, but _____, demon, agent of the dark forces
- God sanctifies our _____, our way of life, our values, our territory

Slide Four: The Enemy as Barbarian

- The enemy is portrayed as an _____ and barbarian, a denier of God, and the destroyer of culture
- Enemy is rude, crude, and _____

Slide Five: The Enemy as Criminal, Committer of Atrocities

- Enemy depicted as _____, cheaters, thieves, and opportunists
- Enemy does not play by the rules of _____ warfare
- The enemy is a _____ who delights in inflicting pain on others

Slide Six: The Enemy as Death

- War is always portrayed as a cosmic drama, a battle between _____ and _____, light and darkness
- Enemy relegated to role of agent of death

Slide Seven: The Enemy as Beast, Reptile, or Insect

- Enemy descends from barbarian to _____ form, from savage to animal
- Enemy depicted as a dangerous, violent, and irrational _____

Slide Eight: The Enemy as Rapist

- Enemy portrayed as unadulterated _____ defiling innocent women
- Women are shown as pure and in need of _____ from the enemy's uncivil passions

Slide Nine: The Enemy as Abstraction

- New weapon _____ no longer makes it necessary for us to respect or hate those we intend to kill
- The missile technician or bomber pilot is so far _____ from the "target," that they need not confront the carnage they inflict

Slide Ten: Now You Choose...

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____